

Resolution to Add Inclusive Language to the Marriage Provision of the Nebraska State Constitution

By Quinton Corwin
Submitted: September 20, 2021

Whereas, LGBTQ+ married couples in Nebraska are not recognized in the Nebraska Constitution,

Whereas, the language in the Nebraska Constitution regarding the marriage provision be changed from between a man and a woman to persons regardless of gender or sexual orientation, therefore,

Let it be resolved that the NDP respectfully request that the legislative body adopt this resolution in the next legislative session in January of 2022,

Be it further ordered that copies of this Resolution be transmitted officially to the speaker of the legislature's office and also to state senators of the current legislature.